

kathryn e. martin

www.kathrynemartin.com

ARTIST STATEMENT

I am interested in the potential for artistic expression that everyday objects possess. In banal objects I find my inspiration, drawing artistic expression from formal characteristics. With minimal alterations, I deconstruct the ordinary forms—often tens of thousands of them—then shape the accumulated fragments into environments and objects that are both elegant and monumental constructed through dissection, interpretation, and assemblage.